3. THE TOUR

DAY 1: SIEM REAP ARRIVAL

Welcome to Siem Reap! When you're arrival at Siem Reap international airport, please go to custom desk as your first point of entry to get visa-on-arrival into the country and pay stamping fees directly by cash to custom office there.

Your guide will greet you and escort you to the hotel in Siem Reap. The driving distance is approximately 30 minutes. Check in hotel and leisure

Accommodation: Overnight at hotel in Siem Reap (3*, 4* or 5*)

DAY 2: FULL DAY ANGKOR THOM & ANGKOR WAT TOUR

Today, visit to the antique capital of Angkor Thom, built in the 12th century: the South Gate with its huge statues depicting the churning of the ocean of milk, the Bayon Temple, unique for its 54 towers decorated with over 200 smiling faces of Avolokitesvara, the Phimeanakas, the Royal Enclosure, the Elephants Terrace and the Terrace of the Leper King.

After a short your rest, you will visit the most famous of all the temples on the plain of Angkor: Angkor Wat. The temple complex covers 81 hectares and is comparable in size to the Imperial Palace in Beijing. Its distinctive five towers are emblazoned on the Cambodian flag. This masterpiece is considered by art historians to be the prime example of classical Khmer art and architecture. Angkor Wat's five towers symbolize Meru's five peaks - the enclosed wall represents the mountains at the edge of the world and the surrounding moat, the ocean beyond. End of day take a relaxing stopover at Prasat Chrung visiting Tadev Hole and temple with the best Sunset. Return to your hotel and end of the tour

Meal: Breakfast

Accommodation: Overnight at hotel in Siem Reap (3*, 4* or 5*)

DAY 4: BANGKOK FULL DAY HIGHLIGHTS

Today, enjoy a full day city tour including the Royal Grand Palace, the nation's landmark and most praised royal monument in Thailand, the enclosed and dazzling Wat Phra Keo with its revered Emerald Buddha, the Golden Chedi, the Pantheon of the Chakri Kings and the Eight Coloured Towers, all are must-see highlights in Bangkok. It is considered to be a living example of classical Siamese Court, being the former residence of the kings of Thailand.

Next, you'll visit Wat Pho – the first centre of public education and 'Thailand's first university' where you will find mural paintings, inscriptions, and statues placed in the temple-educated people on different subjects such as literature, warfare, archaeology, astronomy, geology, meditation. You're then offered the Thai traditional massage with a 30-minutes treatment as an excellent break after a morning tour.

In the afternoon, experience a trip along the bustling Chao Phya River and the quiet Klongs (canals) in a long tail boat. The tour shows you more scenes of life by water, more local traditional way of living that totally away from all the high-rise and modern buildings of Bangkok City. As we gently pass Thonburi residential areas, a stop will be made at the "Temple of Dawn" (officially named Wat Arun). Next, visit the Flower and vegetable market that closed to the Chao Phraya River, this part brings you to a rural piece of Bangkok where there is a vast selection of all kinds of flowers, orchids and tropical flowers. You also see how the merchants create very special flower garlands. This Bangkok day ends at the Golden Mountain. Photography is permitted in the Royal Palace Grounds and in the compounds of the Emerald Buddha Temple, but not inside the buildings.

Note: Please dress respectfully by not wearing sleeveless, shorts or sandals, when visiting the Grand Palace and temple complex.

Meal: Breakfast

Accommodation: Overnight at hotel in Bangkok (3*, 4* or 5*)

DAY 5: BANGKOK FULL DAY AYUTHAYA BY COACH & CRUISE

Morning, visit the former capital of Thailand, Ayuthaya, located approximately 75km north of Bangkok. The mixing cultures in Ayuthaya began in the mid-16th century when ships from Ayuthaya plied the Asian seas and traded with neighboring countries. Ayuthaya became a port city and trading routes extended to China, Japan, Indonesia, Portugal, Holland and France and up to the Scandinavian when the Dutch showed up in the 17th century.

Although the ancient villages of foreign traders lining the Chao Phraya riverbanks were abandoned when the city was sacked by Burmese troops in 1767, some remnants survive to showcase the cities past glory. Arrival, start at the Summer Palace of the late King Rama V, commonly known as "Bang Pa-In". Move on to the magnificent ruins of early splendor that Ayuthaya is famous for all over the world. We will pass all the most impressive ruins of this World Heritage Site for taking sufficient pictures. We then return to Bangkok by cruising down the Chao Phraya River on a comfortable, air-conditioned cruise ship, while enjoying a sumptuous buffet lunch on board. Upon arrival at the disembarkation point in Bangkok in the late afternoon, we drive you back to your hotel.

Note: Kindly be aware that proper attire is required to enter the Summer Palace compounds; staff will be pleased to advise you accordingly

Meal: Breakfast

Accommodation: Overnight at hotel in Bangkok (3*, 4* or 5*)

DAY 6: BANGKOK – CHIANG MAI

After breakfast, you will check out the hotel and then transfer to the airport for flight to Chiang Mai. The flight time is approximately 1hour and 15 minutes. Arrival Chiang Mai, our guide will meet you & escort you to the hotel.

Meal: Breakfast

Accommodation: Overnight at hotel in Chiang Mai (3*, 4* or 5*)

DAY 7: CHIANG MAI FULL DAY ELEPHANT SAFARI & RAFTING

Today, visit the elephant which is Thailand's working pride and one of national symbols. There're about 3000-4000 wild elephants left in Thailand at the present. Elephant ride remain a very important mode of jungle transport as it beats any other animal or machine for its ability to move through a forest with minimum damage although logging is being banned in Thailand. For many years ago, these animals were trained to use their skills by moving lumber and serving as a mode of transport in the jungle area. Over the past decade later, these giants of the forest have been protected in various conservation camps. This journey through the countryside brings you to Chiang Dao Elephant Conservation Camp. You will find elephants at work during a half-hour presentation, taking their morning bath. You'll ride on elephants for one hour to trek into the surrounding forest. A thai set lunch will be served at the camp. After lunch, a leisurely cruise on a bamboo rafting along Ping River to the raft station will be made before heading back to visit Orchid Farm and hotel.

Meal: Breakfast

Accommodation: Overnight at hotel in Chiang Mai (3*, 4* or 5*)

DAY 9: CHIANG RAI - CHIANG SAEN, GOLDEN TRIANGLE AND MAE SAI

Morning depart to Chiang Sean, the historical city dating back more than 700 years. It is formerly known as Wiang Hiran Nakhon Ngoen Yang, the former capital of the Lanna Thai kingdom until this was moved to Chiang Rai in 1262. Chiang Sean still keeps vestiges of its past glory through ruins of double city walls, antiques and its distinctive Buddhist sculpture style that evolved in the 13th century. We continue to visit The Golden Triangle where Thailand, Laos & Myanmar (formerly known as Burma) meet. The Golden Triangle Area used to be the area where an extensive trade of opium and papaver between these three neighboring countries. It is a must not to pass this by. After this, arrive at Mae Sai, a small trading town right on The Thailand – Myanmar border and known as the "Northern most point of Thailand. Lunch will be used at a local restaurant here.
