

CONQUER FANSIPAN MOUNTAIN 3143 METRES

Tour code: SAP
Tour type: Adventure & Trekking
City: Sa Pa
Time: 2Days/1Night

Overview:

At 3,143m, Fansipan is the highest peak in Vietnam and the entire Indochina. This summit is definitely the most desired target for many mountain conquerors. This route is suitable for most of trekkers. The trip is fully supported on every step by our guides, porters and cooks who have local knowledge and understandings of the different hill-tribe cultures on the way.

Itinerary:

Day 1: Sa Pa – Fansipan at 2800 metres: 8am, we meet you up and transports you to Tram Ton Pass to obtain permission to climb the Mountain. From here we will start our climb at 1950 metres above sea level. After four hours of trekking we will stop for lunch beside a small peaceful stream. In the afternoon we continue the climb to the altitude of 2800 metres where we prepare our dinner and set up camp with tents provided for overnight

Day 2: 2800 metres – Summit – Sa Pa: We start a day at 7am. On our trek to Mt. Fansipan, you can enjoy spectacular scenery with magnificent and unique views. Reaching the summit at 11am you then have a spectacular view over Lao Cai Province, Sa Pa town and towards China to the east or Laos to the west. In the afternoon you will arrive at Sin Chai Village home to H'mong minority people. Travel back to Sa Pa by car.
