Time: Full day (Time: 08.30 – 17.30h)

Overview:

Take place every Tuesday, Coc Ly market is located on a hill side lying along the Chay River amid lush mountain ranges. The market is quite small but very colorful. The trip also includes a one-way boat trip along Chay River and a walk to Trung Do village of Tay people. The river is beautiful and poetic with the two mountain ranges on two sides.

Itinerary:

Your guide will pick you up at your hotel and transfer to Coc Ly Market – the impressive Tuesday market of minorities from the surrounding hills. The driving time is approximately 2 hours.

The market attracts traders and market goes from various ethnic groups; Dzaio, Flower H'mong, Tay and Nung in surrounding villages. Stroll through the lively market to observe merchandise on display and people bargaining for purchase. From here, take a boat trip to Na Nen village, home to a community of Flowery Hmong people who is named after the flowery decorative patterns on their clothing. Picnic lunch at a local house

After lunch, a 3km trekking brings you to Trung Do village, a settlement of the Tay ethnic minority people and stop here for lunch at a Tay household. Take another boat trip about 45 minutes down the Chay river and enjoying sighting the riverbank landscapes. Arrive in Bao Nhai village where you will be picked up and go by car to Sa Pa.
