Overview:

Cai Rang floating market is one of the most impressive sights in Can Tho. This is a very unique culture at Delta Mekong countries, attracting a lot of tourists, especially foreign tourists. The unique features and key characteristics of Cai Rang floating market is specialized in trade of fruits, specialties of the Mekong Delta. Market activity starts from dawn and crowded with a variety of large and small boats. The store or small boats often have no signs just hang products they're selling on a pole or on the boat. They call this tree the "Cay Beo". Let's discover it all today by our below day tour.

Itinerary:

Morning, meet our tour guide & driver then depart Ninh Kieu wharf by shuttle-boat, you can see bustling activities along Can Tho riverbanks. This chance you may know how local people go fishing with plenty of fish traps and how they transport passengers as well as products by the waterway. A real local life around you to understand deeply how they love & close with the land. Approaching Cai Rang floating market – one of the most specific markets of the Southwest, the people sell fruits and agricultural products of the whole region.

You can reappear the selling activities in the past using a traditional "offering pole" exchanging consumer goods hanging on the pole for Mekong fruit and vegetables with local sellers. Continue going into the small creeks called Rach Nho in which the Southern countryside, it can be seen clearly lifestyle over here, overlook before cruising back to Ninh Kieu Wharf.
